

26th Annual 2009 Mother's Day Walk for Peace

May 10, 12 Noon Walk to border
2-4 pm Ceremony

at the Oroville-Osoyoos International Border

People can share their message for peace.

Come join our Walk for Peace.

Doukhobors and Okana(o)gan Peace

International Peace Activists gather at the Osoyoos-Oroville International Border to share their messages of Peace and Justice at the Mother's Day Walk for Peace. This annual event is sponsored by the Doukhobor Communities of Western Canada, the Okanaogan Peacemakers, Veterans for Peace, and other Peace and Justice organizations. Please come to hear and share important messages of peace and justice as we gather on Mother's Day 2009.

We will meet at the Oroville Public Library and leave to walk to the border at 12 Noon. You can drive to the border also. Join us in this annual ceremony of peace with the Doukhobor Community and Peacemakers of the Kootenay and Okanagan Valleys of Canada. Bring something to sit on, an umbrella for shade or to shed a shower, and a message of peace.

There will be a luncheon afterwards at 4:30 pm in Osoyoos, B.C. with the Doukhobors.

Come to celebrate peace and justice in our communities!!

For more information, Jeré & Rick Gillespie, 422-1976, rickg@columbiana.org